THE KABIBONOKKA

VOLUME IX

SUPERIOR, WYOMING, MAY, 1933

NUMBER NINE

With a hollow and metallic sound
The massive gates clashed
Through the thickening mists
The cold steel lock flashed.

The echoes mournfully re-echoing,
Through the musty cobwebby years
Were sinisterly showing
Future hopes and fears.

With stooped heads and downcast eyes,
We gray-clad figures pass
With sinking heart and brimming eyes,
Whither go the good one Senior Class?

With deep regret we all embark
On the gigantic ship "Future";
Through halycon and heavy weather
We'll survive, some rich some poor.

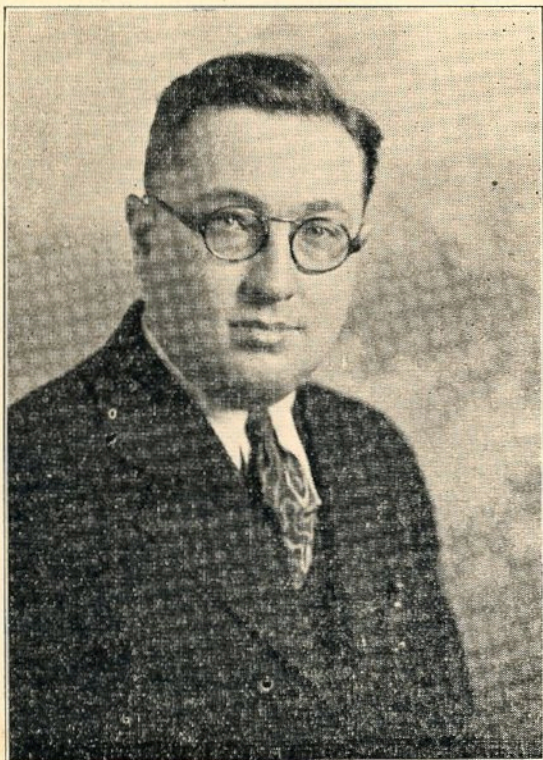

Closed upon us is the door
To the days we unconsciously did enjoy
Hard delving in forgotten lore
Easy, compared to our future employ.

We hate to leave old S. H. S.
Despite that transparent pretense
Of our cries and direst of dire threats
Now, as then aren't worth two pence.

After twelve years of struggling
From the first until now
It took all those years of groping
To realize what is heart breaking now.

—Nonnie Moore.

In Appreciation

The Class of Thirty-Three desires at this time in this public manner to express its deep appreciation for the faithful and efficient work of Superintendent Albert L. Keeney in the Superior schools.

Mr. Keeney has manifested a consistent attitude of sympathetic and helpful interest in the accomplishment of each student. His high standards and ideals have been of great value to each student.

To Our Sponsor

To Mr. J. F. Jiacoletti, our sponsor and coach, whose counsel and guidance have always been timely and sincere and whose loyalty and ever increasing effort for Superior High School has never faltered—to him the class of '33 respectfully dedicates the Senior issue of the Kabibonokka.

GRADUATES OF 1933:

I appreciate this opportunity of injecting just a little personal word to you Seniors in these crowded pages of your class issue.

I want each and every one of you to know that your presence in our high school during the past years has been a genuine pleasure to your teachers and fellow classmates. My own associations and contacts with you during the past two years has been very enjoyable indeed and these associations will always remain pleasantly in my memory. I particularly enjoyed my work with the fine young men and women whom I had the pleasure to coach in your Senior Class Play, "The Whole Town's Talking."

These are trying times of economic and social depression and young people are apt to become somewhat discouraged because of inability to attend college or to find gainful employment. The days ahead may tax your patience and courage to the utmost, but I urge you to keep yourselves occupied so that you will continue to grow in intelligence and wisdom. Always remember that the only value of time is its use. The hills of accomplishment may seem at times very steep and very rough but they are well worth climbing not only for the extended view at the top, but for the privilege of looking back over the difficulties we have surmounted and realize that we have conquered them all and left them behind us forever.

I assure you that my interest will follow you in the various paths of endeavor which you may take up and I shall always welcome an opportunity to lend you a helping hand.

Congratulations, Seniors, upon your completion of twelve years of work in our public schools and sincerest wishes for success and happiness in life.

Superintendent of Schools.

Forward

We, the Kabibonokka staff of 1934 and 1935, are very pleased to present to you the annual Senior issue.

It is in this book that we store memories of many by-gone days and smiles of long-lost friends.

We hope, that in the years to come, as you turn back the pages, you will re-live the happy, carefree moments spent within the walls of S. H. S., and remember parted comrades.

Farewell

The school stands desolate and alone,
The halls are empty and still;
For the seniors are going and ne'er will return;
And their places will be hard to fill.

Put away your books and pencils;
The day has come when we must part—
We must say goodbye to the dear old school,
And we'll do it with a sad, sad heart.

Alas! Alack! They will be missed
With their happy smiles and their cheery ways.
But we'll never, never forget them,
Not 'till the end of our days.

A sigh of envy is murmured,
As the grey clad figures arise;
For the seniors are receiving their diplomas,
Which of twelve long years is the prize.

We will cherish this reward forever—
Memories of you and disappointments it will cast
Of the long years we have labored,
And of carefree days that have passed.

Good-bye to the dear old high school.
We leave with a tinge of regret,
For our carefree days are over
And the future is somewhat a threat.

Good luck and happiness we wish them,
Through many a heartfelt tear;
Farewell to the dear old seniors,
The seniors we'll remember, so dear.

--Helen Fabian.

Jokes

GIRLS MUST NOT READ THIS

If there's anything worries a woman,
 It's something she out not to know;
 But you bet she will find ought somehow,
 If she gets the least kind of show.
 Now we'll wager ten cents to a dollar
 This poem she has already read.
 We know she would get at it somehow,
 If she had to stand on her head.

"A fresman saw the Kabib box
 Went for it on the run,
 He dropped his penny in the hole
 And waited for his gum."

What We Did

September 5 was the first day of school,
And the begining of a nine month's duel;
The mixer was held on the twenty-first,
And the boys were just dying of thirst.
On the 26th was the Greenie's initiation,

Followed on October 3 by the Parents Teacher's Association.

On October 10-12 to the Wyoming Educational Association meeting,

Through Superoir the cars could be seen fleeing.
On the sixteenth the Pep Club assembled.

To the motoin picture, on the 19th, we all ambled.
All gathered at the Home Ec party on the twenty-fourth;

On the 26th due to the Pep assembly the building roared.

On the 27th our football season opened at Green River.

And on November 2 we gave a parade—there's never been a better.

A football game with Rock Springs on the third.
And also the Home Ec classes visited the U. P. butcher shop, I've heard.

On November 8 we ran to see the motion picture with a grin,

And the next day went to the Armistice assembly in the gym.

On the 12th we played a fast game with Kemmerer, here,

And on the 26th the Junior party — what they would have given for some cheer.

On the 28th the Juniors' annual program,

'Twas presented as a carnival gay;

Then on the 29th and 30th came our Thanksgiving vacation,

And did we eat enough turkey? I do regretfully say!

Came December the 7th, a day of motion,
There was a picture, the football banquet and a Student Council dance.

On December 10 you should have seen

Each and every girl to her Association prance;

On the 12th we viewed a P. T. A. meeting keen,

On Dec. 14 there was a party given by the Girls' Association,

A pageant by the H. S. girls on Christmas vacation.

On the 21st we viewed an assembly given by the public speaking class,

And between Dec. 22 and Jan. 6 a joyos Xmas vacation did pass;

In January, on the 9th, we won a victory in basketbal from Aberdeen,

Then on the 11th a motion picture was seen.

On the 12th and 15th Rock Springs and Lyman played here.

P. T. A. held on the 16th in the Finn Hall.

On the 18th semester exams—everyone filled with fear,

On the same day the senior assembly, best of all.

The next day were the Saratoga and Reliance games;

On the 22nd we motored to R. S. with our Pep Club "dames."

Junior High basketball game on the 24th;

Two days later a dance and Rawlins game.

Came February 2—a victory from Hanna we won.

On the 8th at the Girls' Association assembly all had fun;

The same day the basketball boys for their trip east parted.

On Valentine's Day Cupid his bows darted;

The 15th an interesting motion picture show,

The next night at the G. R. game the flashlights did glow.

Debate here with G. R. on the 18th,

And a game with Kemmerer on the night of the nineteenth.

Feb. 22 an assembly in the English department,

The next day our boys to Green River for basket-ball were sent;

On the 26th the rollicking all-school play,

And on March the 8th, Mr. Millard's good recital, as they all did say.

Senior dance, March 9th, the best of the year,

And debate with Rock Springs one day there the next here.

On March 13th P. T. A. again opened its door;

And on the 15th at the Pep Club assembly the students did roar.

The sophomore assembly on the 29th featured a leisure day,

And on April 12th an amazing crowd attended the faculty play;

On the 17th the Pep Club presented its drills,

The Home Ec Club on the 26th filled us with thrills.

The Junior Prom came on the 3rd day of May,

Followed on the 7th by the senior play.

On the 8th P. T. A. was held for the last time,

And on the 10th the H. S. operetta was fine.

On the 17th the freshman assembly was a riot,

The Baccalaureate services on the 19th of May,

Then on the 23rd the joyous commencement night—

The next day began summer vacation—what a grand day!

Senior Alphabet

A—is for Alexander a very smart boy, his studies he seldom uses as a toy.
 Anselmi too, we must confess is the school-day sweetheart of S. H. S.
 Arnoldi sisters we have the two, Alma a red-head and Mary a brunette—the best of friends you ever met.

B—is for Bertagnolli, the girl of high pride, shall be missed by her classmates when not by their sides.

C—stands for Cieluszak a quiet girl is she, still always pleasant as can be.

D—is Dexter so sweet and refined. You can't blame Alfred for being on time.
 And also means Dugas, our cute little blonde, in spite of her temper, of her we are fond.

F—is for Fabian, you all must agree, is full of "wim, wigger and witality."
 And also for Fukamori, another sweet lass, is well admired by the senior class.

G—is Galassi a senior fair, who is noted for her pretty hair.
 Then tunes in Genetti, a studious girl, her studies she values as a pearl.
 In marches Gillian, with her dashing red hair—who never appears to have a care.
 Also for Gratton a jester you all know, in school you'll see him "just so."

H—is for Hiner so tall and strong, when he's on the team we can't go wrong.
 Then comes Hayes, as it is said, is the senior who is soon to be wed.

K—means Kondziela "What a dancer you should see!"
 Ask her to teach both you and me.
 Kezele is slightly creeping in, our team without him would be a sin.
 Korhonen—our class president has always done his work in the best manner ever.

M—means McLeod so timid and fair, what will happen when he won't have Clare.
 Also Marietti, regardless of what, with her smile she's right on the dot.

O—is Overy the card of laughs, for humor she is chosen the best of the class.

P—means Pollari, a tall gay blonde, of her English she certainly is fond.

R—means Richardson a happy go lucky boy; hasn't a worry, but always a toy.
 Then speeds Rink with a swing and a sway, but always smiling in a gay old way.
 Rizzi, we have a girl and boy, both worthy members and full of joy.
 Then comes Ross our "worthy athlete." You must admit he's hard to beat.

V—for Van Valkenburg as cute as can be, that is the reason she is called "Sweetie."

W—means Wall, now what shall I say, she does her work day by day.
 Also Wylam, he surely is true, is always willing to help both me and you.

Z—is Zorko, a classmate so fair. Would we have a class if she were not there?
 Last but not least, spins in Zambelli. What he can do you never can tell 'ie.

Teacher—"Johnny, use the word 'debate' in a sentence."
 Johnny—"When I goes fishin' I spits on debate."

Teacher—"Name the tudors."
 Pupil—"Front door and back door."

Carl K.—"What is the Liberty Bell?"
 Russel D.—"The bell at the end of the sixth period."

Henry Z.—"What is the longest word in the dictionary?"
 Alfred B.—"Rubber, you can stretch it."

Give me a definition for a blotter.
 A blotter is a thing you look for while the ink dries.

Alfred N.—"What would you rather be if you were to be born over?"
 James M.—"I would want to be half Jew and half negro because a negro is always happy when he has a dollar and a Jew always has a dollar."

George M.—"Do we have a test in history today?"
 Mathoni H.—"No."
 George M.—"Then what are you studying for?"

Mary M.—"Say, Vern, that's a finely chiseled mouth you have. It ought to be on a girl's face."
 Vern S.—"I seldom miss the opportunity."

WHAT A FINAL EXAM CALLS FOR

All you know,
A lot you've forgotten
And more you never heard of.

SENIORS

Freshmen are green;
Seniors are gray.
'Tis the green grass
Turned to hay.

Early to bed and early to rise,
And you'll never meet the High School guys.

NEEDS NO EXPLANATION

A freshie
A ditto
A small rubber band
A voice
"To the office."
Result: Two freshies canned.

Lives of Freshmen all remind us,
When we, too, were in our prime.
Oft they murmur, "I should worry,
For my ignorance is sublime."

WORTH REMEMBERING

Little deeds of kindness
To the faculty now and then,
Would often raise your grade
From a 0 to a 10.

FRESHIES PRAYER BEFORE EXAMS

Now I lay me down to sleep
In my little bunk;
I hope I die before I wake
And thus escape a flunk.

Toivo (Longnecker) Korhonen crept into the house,
The cuckoo clock struck four,
Toivo crept up close beside the clock
And cuckooed eight times more.

I'm aware that for beauty, I am not a star
I know there are others more handsome by far.
My face—I don't mind it, you see, I'm behind it,
'Tis the people in front that I jar.

—Woodrow Wilson.

Did you get a B in that grammar test?
I guess so. Miss _____ said I got stung.
